Jim Sherman driving the Casowasco Roller Coaster

Jim Sherman seems to love the wagon rides through the Highlands at Casowasco — probably because he's the one on the tractor taking the wagon riders through the mud, up and down the hills and across the meadows. If you ever find yourself sitting on that wagon, plan to hold on for dear life. For seven years now I've managed to escape the ride. Then on Saturday Jim told me how much fun it is. It is the closest I have ever come to a roller coaster and it just might be the last time I listen to Jim.
